

Jill Byers

Bocce

Jill Byers has played basketball and bocce for Special Olympics for nearly 20 years. She grew up on a dairy farm and was named the Lawrence County Dairy Princess during her senior year of high school. She loves spending time with her family and babysitting her nephews and niece.

Jill is very active in her church community and volunteers at World Vision and for the Yellow Ribbon Girls, who send care packages to troops overseas.

Aside from working two part-time jobs, Jill loves watching football (Steelers & Penn State), painting by number, kayaking, attending concerts/musicals, going to the beach and caring for her dog.
