

Cameron Dittmar

Powerlifting

Cameron Dittmar is a multi-sport athlete who recently won gold medals for skiing in the 2015 and '16 SOPA Winter Games. Cameron lives in New Hope with his parents and is very active in the community. A graduate of Council Rock High School (2015), Cameron has volunteered his time at St. Mary's Thrift Shop and the Bucks County Playhouse as an usher. Cameron's love of theater dates back to when he was 4-years-old and he taught himself the dance steps to the Bee Gees' "Stayin' Alive" and learned the lyrics to the Mary Poppins classic "Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious." He's since performed in "Dancing through the Decades" and loves to create art.

IN HIS WORDS

“ I feel very happy to be competing in the 2018 USA Games. My family and friends are very excited for me. This is good and special for all of us. ”

Hometown: Princeton, N.J.

Age/Years Involved: 21/4

Other Sports: Bowling, skiing, tennis and track & field

Local Program: Bucks County

Role: Athlete

