

Michael Pacitti

Bowling

Michael Pacitti first joined Special Olympics in Fairfax, Va. and began playing basketball, cross-country skiing, swimming and track. After moving back to West Chester, Pa. in 1989, he discovered bowling and golf.

Michael, who has five siblings, has worked at QVC for 26 years. Special Olympics has given him the opportunity to build his social skills by meeting new people, traveling and making new friends. Throughout the years, he's won multiple awards from Special Olympics and also won the "Achievement Award" from QVC. He loves to cheer for the Philadelphia Eagles and Philadelphia Phillies and play video games.
