

Kimberly Schickley

Athletics

Kimberly Schickley joined Special Olympics and has since become a seven-sport standout. When she's not training, Kimberly volunteers her time at her mom's business because she enjoys helping people.

In her free time, Kimberly watches football and NASCAR. She also loves to read, cook, listen to music, draw and make bracelets. She's currently training to become a certified soccer coach and she serves as a Global Messenger in her county. She has twice carried the Flame of Hope for Opening Ceremonies and gained more confidence in herself as a result of participating in Special Olympics throughout the years.
