Swimming

Elizabeth Smith is more than just an athlete. During her 21 years with Special Olympics, she has come to personify everything the organization stands for. From playing seven sports throughout the years, to speaking to hundreds of people as a Global Messenger, Lizzie has done it all. As an athlete leader, she has spoken to members of congress in Washington, D.C. and is a founding member of the SOPA Athlete Congress. She's also a proud member of the Delaware County Sports Hall of Fame. When she's not competing or speaking, Lizzie loves caring for her dog, Duffy. She's been employed at Swarthmore College for over 20 years and is a master at completing intricate coloring books.
