NORRISTOWN, PA (May 15, 2017) – Law enforcement officers from throughout Western Pennsylvania will stake out eight Dunkin' Donuts rooftops to support Special Olympics Pennsylvania on Friday, May 19th, from at 5 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Officers from the City of Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, Mt. Lebanon, Carlow University, Point Park, Monroeville, Murrysville, Fayette County, Cranberry Township, the Allegheny County Sheriff's Office, the Butler County Sheriff's Office, and Pennsylvania State Troopers will be on-site at various Dunkin' Donuts locations. Their goal will be to raise awareness and donations for the Law Enforcement Torch Run to benefit Special Olympics Pennsylvania.

Special Olympics athletes and their families are among the special guests who will join police officers and rise to the occasion to show their support. In addition, each customer that visits a Cop on a Rooftop location on May 19th and makes a donation to the Torch Run will receive a free donut coupon. Patrons donating at least $10 will receive a Law Enforcement Torch Run travel mug (while supplies last) and a coupon for free medium coffee.

This year, for the first time, Pennsylvania law enforcement officers are joining Illinois, Kansas, Ohio, Missouri, and Kentucky in staking out Dunkin' Donuts rooftops to support Special Olympics in their own states.
