About Nothing But Net 2024

Nothing But Net originated as a 24-hour free throw shooting marathon created by Debbie Antonelli, a Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame college basketball analyst for ESPN, CBS, Raycom Sports and Westwood One, inspired by her son Frankie and his love of competition. Born in South Carolina, this Special Olympics Fundraiser has expanded to 7 states including programs in Minnesota, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and Texas.

In its third year in Pennsylvania, the Nothing But Net fundraiser will take place at the Cavoli Barn on April 27th from 10 AM to 3 PM, with a special pre-event breakfast mixer at 9 AM for select event sponsors and regional supporters. It will feature teams of corporate and community partners completing their free throw challenge - towards our overall goal of 2,400 free throws made - along with a live deejay, food, guest appearances by local celebrities and more! Each team participating in the event will also be paired up with Special Olympics PA athletes to create UNIFIED teams.

Proceeds raised via peer-to-peer fundraising and sponsorship benefit Special Olympics Pennsylvania, which provides year-round training and competition in 21 Olympic-type sports to more than 13,000 children and adults with intellectual disabilities or closely related developmental disabilities. This includes nearly 3,500 athletes here in Special Olympics Pennsylvania's Capital Area Region.
