

Herbert Rider Soccer

Herbert Rider joined Special Olympics Pennsylvania in 2003. Herbie, nicknamed “The Love Bug,” loves soccer best, but also is looking forward to being the exhibition athlete for snowboarding this coming winter in Chester County.

Herbie works at both the Downingtown Country Club and Forge Hill Farms and in his free time enjoys dancing and roller skating. He recently received a service award for helping in a local food distribution program and is proud of graduating from high school and obtaining employment.
